

University of Tennessee Military and First Responder Discount Offer

Tennessee Athletics is excited to announce a new veteran, military, and first responder offering, available for the first time this fall. By using a special discount code, veterans, military members, and first responders can receive a discount to seven home football games (excluding Georgia) and all men's and women's basketball games. Discounted tickets are limited and based on availability. Restrictions may apply.

Offer codes will be distributed directly to 10 local and state military, veteran, and first-responder organizations, and will also be made available to military, veteran, and first responders who present a military ID, DD 214, license certification, state-issued ID, badge or other employer-issued identification at the Tennessee Athletics ticket window at Thompson-Boling Arena. Military units or Veteran organizations wishing to receive an organizational discount code, may click HERE to apply for a group discount code. Individual veterans, military service members, and first responders may also apply for an individual discount code by completing the form HERE. Discounted tickets must be purchased in-advance at AllVols.com or at the Tennessee Athletics ticket window. Discounts are not available on game day.

ETMAC has received their own discount code which is open to all veterans that are part of ETMAC, and all military unit personnel if your unit does not yet have a code of their own.
